

Q And a certified copy of that deed is filed with the papers marked Exhibit A?

A Yes.

MR. OFFUTT: We offer that in evidence.

Q Now, Mrs. Main, at the time of the death of George W. Hildebrand who were his survivors, that is, next of kin?

A Grace Cline and Blanche Hildebrand and Charles Hildebrand and myself.

Q Blanche S. Hildrebrand - she is unmarried?

A That's right.

Q And where does she reside at the present time, if you know?

A I think she is with my sister, I am not sure.

Q Where does she reside?

A In Hagerstown.

Q Esta Grace Cline, a sister, is married to Grover C. Cline?

A That's right.

Q And she resides at 801 Frederick Street in Hagerstown, Maryland?

A Yes.

Q Who was Charles L. W. Hildebrand?

A That was my half brother.

Q When did he die?

A He died on April 18, 1960 - be a year this April.

Q And after his death to whom was letters of administration granted in the Orphans' Court of Frederick County? Who administered on his estate?

A Blanche S. Hildebrand and Esta Grace Cline.

Q When Charles L. W. Hildebrand died who were his next of kin?

A Myself and Grace Cline and my other sister, Blanche Hildebrand.

Q Now at the time of his death it was alleged that he died without a will, is that right?

A That's right.